

Course Information

External Courses

Teaching Org. Contact Paula Anderegg, Ext. 3-8849

Summary

On-line course aimed both at providing foundational knowledge and filling gaps, this program surveys current issues and explains the essential components of software licenses for a variety of practical contexts.

Objectives

Upon completion of this course, students will understand:

- License vs. Sale or Lease: Contract Leveraging of Intellectual Property
- License Grant and Conditions
- Representations, Warranties, and Indemnifications
- Custom Development: Performance, Security, Insolvency
- Mass Market: Opportunity to Review
- "The Cloud": Software as a Service on the Internet
- Privacy and Litigation Considerations

Repeat Frequency One Time Only

Refresher None

Prerequisites None

Alternates None

Duration 8 hrs

Instruction Type Instructor Led Training (ILT)

Cost No Cost

Max Enrollment